

Alice L. Gronski

Alice was employed as a secretary at the East Asia Library beginning in either late 1996 or early 1997. She would remain in this position for a few years before moving on to the Department of Health Services at the University of Washington. From 2000 through 2002, she was a Secretary Senior, and remained in this position until her retirement in the 2010s.

*Alice Gronski,
February 1998*

Sanae Isozumi

Sanae Isozumi was appointed Coordinator of Cataloging, as well as Japanese Cataloger for the East Asia Library (EAL), on February 1st 1997. She came to this position from University of California, San Diego Libraries and worked at EAL for a year or two.