

Hyun Chu (“Leah”) Kim

Leah Kim worked in the East Asia Library as a Library Technician III from 1993 to 1999; she did technical services work—including acquisitions, copy cataloging and some original cataloging and record enhancement, etc.—for Korean materials.

Leah obtained her B.A. in Sociology from UW in 1992 and her Masters of Library and Information Science in 2007 from Valdosta State University, specializing in Archives and Technical Services.

After leaving UW, Leah worked as Branch Director of the Center for Pan Asian Community Services, and subsequently in the Cobb County Public Library System and then Southern Polytechnic State University (in Marietta, Georgia). In November 2011, she was hired at Kennesaw State University; she began there as Assistant Professor of Library Science and Authority Control and Serials Cataloging Librarian, and currently holds the position of Metadata & Authority Control Librarian and Librarian Associate Professor.

Leah Kim, February 1998